Our commitments

- 1. Our essential oils are 100% pure. They are carefully selected to meet strict specifications. We carry out chemical and physical analyses of each batch (refraction index, chirality, density, etc) and a chromatography test, so we can assure you of the botanical identity and biochemical characteristics of all our essential oils (EOBBD: Essential Oils Botanically and Biochemically Defined).
- 2. We nurture sustainable and fair trade, and support traditional production chains. We choose local producers to encourage development in countries in difficulty and promote the recognised quality of their products.
- 3. We only use 100% natural products, with no added preservatives or synthetic fragrances. The technical specifications show the composition and exact production method of each of our products.
- 4. Aroma-Zone is pledged to support the association One Voice. Aroma-Zone products and their ingredients have not been tested on animals. We only use products that come from plant sources. No animal product or sub-product is used in producing our products (except products from beehives, mare's milk, donkey milk and silk proteins). We always check the animals' living conditions and ensure that the method of obtaining the product does not endanger the animals' welfare.
- 5. We use widely recyclable packaging (metal, glass and card). We use loose-fill packaging made from 100% biodegradable corn or wheat starch or crumpled recycled and recyclable paper in parcels to protect the contents of our parcels.

THE QUALITY AROMA-ZONE

The quality of our essential oils

The vast majority of our essential oils come from :

- wild plants, a guarantee of the best possible quality for essential oils because as the plant has grown in its natural biotope, without interference from people, it produces the purest essential oil,
- or from certified organic plants farmed by independent groups,
- and finally from plants grown using environmentally friendly methods with no use of chemical products, when organic certification is not available or too costly.

The majority of our essential oils are extracted from fresh plants at the place of harvesting ; this allows us to extract whole and fresh essential oils from plants which have not been damaged by transport conditions or the haulage time.

Our essential oils are pure and natural, whole, terpeneless and non-modified.

They are fully defined (producer, botanical name, chemotype, country of origin), which is where the EOBBD mark comes from (Essential Oils Botanically and Biochemically Defined).

Our information labels guarantee full transparency of the nature of the essential oil you buy :

- botanical name of the plant
- chemotype (main biochemical molecules)
- distilled part
- exact origin of the plant
- cultivation type
- batch no. (guaranteeing traceability back to our supplier)
- expiry date

Each order is accompanied by essential oils precautions for use which must be read before using the essential oils.

Each batch of essential oils is tested by an independent laboratory which guarantees to us the compliance of the chemical and physical criteria (density, refraction index, chirality, etc) of each oil, its purity and its exact composition.

So we have a gas chromatography (Chemotyped Essential Oils) for each batch.

These in-depth analyses guarantee the quality and purity of our essential oils.

The quality of our plant oils

We prefer virgin plant oils, from the first cold pressing of wild plants or plants from certified organic farming, extracted within a year and 100% pure. This extraction method, combined with how fresh the oil is, ensures you will receive very high quality oils with all their properties intact. These plant oils are analysed by an independent laboratory to assess the fatty acids composition in particular.

The quality of our hydrolates and other natural extracts

Aroma-Zone aromatic hydrolates are highly concentrated, 100% pure and incredibly fresh ; the majority come from plants from certified organic farming. These hydrolates are fresh produce and must be kept refrigerated.

The other extracts (powders, gums, waxes, etc) have been carefully selected and tested in order to offer you the best possible quality. All extracts and other products are tested by our quality assessment laboratory.

The quality of our certified organic natural cosmetics

Our cosmetic products are formulated by our cosmetic experts. They are made using natural components and with all the benefits of our first rate knowledge of raw materials. The high concentration of active ingredients increases efficacy. They have been through a detailed assessment and testing process by an internal panel of consumers to perfect the formulas. Our production team pays particularly close attention to complying with cosmetic production best practices, particularly with regard to hygiene standards. The procedures we apply allow us to guarantee full traceability for each batch of products. Because we produce in small batches to provide a sales stock of two to three months, our products are incredibly fresh. All our products are painstakingly tested in line with a strict technical specification created by our quality manager and our pharmacist.
